

Royal Scottish Country Dance Society, San Gabriel Valley Branch
Pasadena Thursday Class & South Pasadena Sunday Class
Present our Annual

Summer Series 2019

*A Selection of Special Classes in Dance Technique & Choreography
For Experienced Dancers, unless noted* or with teachers' permission*

- June 6 Phunny Phrasing & Odd Numbers*
- June 13 Fugues, Canons & Fun: Challenging dances old & new
- June 20 Martha Matthews and Connie Walker present "The Music Will Tell You (Really!)": Phrasing your dancing TO the rhythm of the music*
- June 27 There's a Summer Social on Saturday afternoon, June 29. Learn the dances & Hambo tonight!*
- July 4 Happy 4th of July America! Enjoy your day of celebration
- July 11 Barbara Mackenzie takes us on A Trip Around Scotland with regional dance favorites*
- July 18 Aloha! The Scottish Luau is this Sunday, July 21! Better stop by tonight to practice your hula and limbo*
- July 25 Doug teaches us the Papa Stour Sword Dance (agility and flexibility a must, everyone wear shorts)*

*Thursday evenings, 8:00-10:00 pm ~ $8.00 per class ~ refreshments provided
Classes will be held at Pasadena Presbyterian Church, in South Hall
585 E. Colorado Blvd, Pasadena 91101*

Classes will cover various aspects of technique, including phrasing, teamwork, handing, steps & deportment, as well as challenging dances with unusual figures and progressions. Dancers must be able to follow brief instructions, may not be allowed to walk all positions, and need to know the standard RSCDS formations